About RTÉ

RTÉ is a Public Service Broadcaster, a non-profit making organisation owned by the Irish people.

Who we are

RTÉ is a Public Service Broadcaster, a non-profit making organisation owned by the Irish people. RTÉ is Ireland's cross-media leader, providing comprehensive and cost-effective free-to-air television, radio and online services, which are of the highest quality and are impartial, in accordance with RTÉ's statutory obligations.

What we do

RTÉ operates two complementary television channels, RTÉ One and RTÉ Two and four radio stations, RTÉ Radio 1, RTÉ 2fm, RTÉ lyric fm and RTÉ Raidió na Gaeltachta. RTÉ also publishes Ireland's best-selling magazine, the RTÉ Guide, operates Ireland's leading teletext service, RTÉ Aertel, and provides up-to-date news, current affairs and entertainment information via Ireland's most popular media website, RTÉ.ie. RTÉ is also a major contributor to the arts in Ireland and supports five performing groups - the RTÉ National Symphony Orchestra, the RTÉ Concert Orchestra, the RTÉ Vanbrugh Quartet, the RTÉ Philharmonic Choir and RTÉ Cór na nÓg.

As Ireland's Public Service Broadcaster, RTÉ has been producing and curating broadcast materials for eight decades. The RTÉ Libraries and Archives collections consist of radio and television programmes, still images, production files, scripts, music scores and manuscripts.

Organisational Structure

The RTÉ Authority is charged by the Irish Government with overseeing the activities of the RTÉ Group. The Director-General reports directly to the RTÉ Authority.

The RTÉ Executive manages RTÉ's Integrated Business Divisions (IBDs) and the Group's Shared Services (Finance, Internal Audit, HR, Communications, Legal Affairs, Technology) on a day-to-day basis.
