The Provisional Government of the Irish Republic
To the People of Ireland.

Irishmen and Irishwomen in the name of God and of all past generations, we have recourse to the traditions of Ireland, with whom we have united our children in life and death for her freedom.

Having organized and trained her fighting force through her secret revolutionary organizations, the Irish Republican Brotherhood, and through the other various military organizations, the Irish Volunteers and the Irish Citizen Army, having patiently prepared for the right moment to reveal the new order which she has now set up at that moment, and supported by her눌ルление in America and by galáctikon in Europe, but relying on the Lord on her own strength, she strikes in full confidence of victory.

We declare the right of the people of Ireland to a sovereign and independent state, and to the establishment of a Republic of Ireland. The long struggle of our race for freedom, the struggle of the peoples of the world for freedom, is to be continued. We have taken the first step in this direction, and we pledge our life and our blood as we advance. We shall not rest till the bonds of the Irish people are broken and the principles we hold are restored.

The Irish Republic is a united and hardy union, the allegiance of every Irishman and Irishwoman. The Republic guarantees religious and civil liberty, equal rights and equal opportunity to all men, and duties to the happiness of all the members of the nation and of all the different classes among the children of the nation, equality, and the suppression of all the differences that have given rise to an alien government, which has deprived us of a minority from the day of our birth, that is to say, from the day of our establishment of a permanent and authentic Government.

We demand of the Irish people, as of all the Irish people, the submission to the principles of the Republic and the submission of the people of Ireland to the protection of the Republic. We demand of the Irish people the submission to the principles of the Republic and the submission of the people of Ireland to the protection of the Republic. We demand of the Irish people the submission to the principles of the Republic and the submission of the people of Ireland to the protection of the Republic. We demand of the Irish people the submission to the principles of the Republic and the submission of the people of Ireland to the protection of the Republic. We demand of the Irish people the submission to the principles of the Republic and the submission of the people of Ireland to the protection of the Republic.
