UNIT 1: THE CAUSES, COURSE AND CONSEQUENCES OF THE GREAT IRISH FAMINE

GENERAL OVERVIEW: In this series of activity-based lessons students will gain a deeper understanding of the concepts of cause and consequence as well as learning about the main events leading up to, during and after the Great Irish Famine (1845-1852). Students will apply their understanding of these concepts and events to analyse and interpret a selection of maps, documents and images.

Students will be asked to consider why the effects of the Famine were felt to varying degrees in different parts of Ireland. Students will further be asked to consider the long-term impacts of the Famine and demonstrate understanding in a series of assessment-for-learning tasks.

The levels of detail presented in the maps and the richness of the historical sources offer considerable scope for students to develop their critical thinking skills. They are encouraged to form judgements based on evidence and practice enquiry, critical thinking, evaluation and creative skills.

Lesson 1 & 2: Ireland before the Famine (1 - 2 class periods)

SUMMARY: During this lesson(s), students will learn about the primary causes of the famine though an examination of the lives of four [fictional] people associated with, and affected by, the Great Famine. The activity-based lesson guides students in focused reading and the location and interpretation of information about the Anglo-Irish Landlord, The Large Tenant Farmer, the Small Tenant Farmer and the Cottier. Students practice the skills of information recording, classification and summarising as well as developing communication and collaboration skills.

Learning outcomes
By the end of this lesson students should have...

- Explained the main causes of the Great Irish Famine
- Become familiar with the groups associated with and affected by the Great Irish Famine
- Identified, explained and recorded key words
- Depicted a concept symbolically
- Recorded information by summarising
- Presented information in graphic format
- Worked effectively as part of a group
- Made predictions based on an understanding of the facts

Part 1: Overview/starter

Explained that the targets for this lesson are to be able to explain some of the main reasons why Famine began in Ireland in 1845, and the different groups in Irish society that were affected by it.

Spend some time surveying the class about prior knowledge of the Famine. It may be useful to begin by projecting a powerpoint slide featuring the four types of houses in Ireland before the famine (1st class houses – 4th class houses) and ask students to suggest the type of person that lived in each house and why.

The brief activity will lead to the provision of any background information that might be required prior to the student group task.

Part 2: Student Led Learning

Step 1: Direct students to the first two pages of the Student Worksheet for Lesson 1 and assign one of the following identities to each student: Anglo-Irish Landlord, Large Tenant Farmer, Small Tenant Farmer, Cottier.

Step 2: Students locate the relevant Character Autobiography in the Worksheet and read it carefully, underlining anything interesting or surprising, or any unfamiliar words.

Step 3: At the end of the allotted time the students locate the other students in the class with the same identity and form ‘identity groups’ of Landlords, Cottiers etc.

Step 4: Each group appoints a chairperson to oversee a discussion about how to fill in the Character Profile Sheet for their assigned character.

Step 5: All students complete the relevant Character Profile.

Step 6: The class is reorganised into new groups of four. Each should include one Landlord, one Large and one Small Tenant Farmer and one Cottier.

Step 7: All group members contribute to the group discussion as the character they created in their original identity groups.

Step 8: The group discussion, with the Landlord as chairperson, will have two parts:
(a) Each group member introduces themselves - in character - to the other students. They should explain why the symbol on Character Profile Sheet was chosen to represent their character.

(b) Working together, the group fills in the Predicting the Famine Worksheet. Each member of the group adds at least one thing that concerns their character and the reason for the concern.

Step 9: Taking into account all of the concerns, the group discuss what might happen in the future (Predicted Outcome) if each concern becomes a reality.

Part 3: Review/Plenary

Ask two students to act as scribes and stand at the white board, ready to write.

Ask for feedback from an appointed spokesperson from each group.

Students are free to agree, question or elaborate during the feedback session.

Direct the scribes to write down any feedback that relates directly to the causes of the Famine. The result will be a list of the main causes of the famine, and the basis for a homework task/essay.

Lesson 3: The Great Hunger (1-2 class periods)

Summary: During this lesson(s), students interrogate a selection of primary and secondary source material relating to the effects of the Famine - particularly in the south west. They are asked to think critically about the reliability of the different sources and extract evidence to make judgements about the impact of the Famine. Using their dictionary skills, students also locate and explain a series of words and phrases relating to the Famine before choosing one of two individual tasks.

Learning outcomes

By the end of this lesson students should have...

| O | Explained the concepts of Famine relief, Workhouse, Poor Law, famine fever and destitution |
| O | Examined the impact of the Great Irish Famine in different parts of Ireland |
| O | Empathised with the suffering of victims of the Famine |
| O | Identified and defined key words |
| O | Evaluated the reliability of a primary source document |
| O | Detected bias and subjectivity in primary sources |
| O | Presented information in visual or written format |
| O | Worked effectively as part of a group |

Part 1: Overview/starter

Begin by explaining that the targets for this lesson are to examine the effects of the Great Famine

- Task 1:

Part 2: Student Led Learning

Step 1:

Direct the students to the relevant pages of the Student Worksheet for Lesson 3 and give them time to examine the document before organising the class into pairs.

Step 2:

Using the worksheet provided, students work together to define some of the more archaic language used in Document A and find modern synonyms.

Step 3:

At the conclusion of the allotted time, each pair compares their answers with another as the teacher moves between groups assessing understanding.

Step 4:

Individually, students complete the first five comprehension questions based on Document A. After surveying the answers, field a class discussion about the reliability and objectivity of the journalist. Students apply what they have learned during the discussion to answer questions 6 and 7 about the reliability of the source.

Step 5:

Question 8 is a creative and imaginative task and should be completed individually for homework.

Task 2:

Step 1:

Working in pairs, students read documents B-E in the Student Worksheet and complete the source analysis grid that follows.

Step 2:

Ask each pair to compare their answers with another, before appointing a spokesperson from each group of 4 to present feedback to the class.

Part 3: Review/Plenary:

Compare student assessment of reliability during a class discussion.

Invite volunteers to offer a summary of the effects of the famine using information they gleaned from reading the sources.

Encourage volunteers to use as much of the detail they recorded in the 'Interesting/surprising words of facts' column as possible.

Lesson 4: The Consequences of the Great Irish Famine (1 class period)

Summary: During this lesson(s), students examine five Atlas of the Irish Revolution maps depicting the effects of the famine on a county level. Working in pairs, students answer questions based on their interpretation of the data depicted in the maps. The topic gains relevancy for the students when they use to maps to identify the extent to which their own county was affected by the Famine.

|-------------------|--------------------------|-----------------------------|------------------------|
| By the end of this lesson students should have ... | Begin by explaining that the targets for this lesson are to be able to list and explain the main consequences of the Great Irish Famine. | Step 1: Direct the students to the maps and the captions in relevant maps in the student worksheet and allocate five minutes to examine them closely. | Step 1: Draw three columns on the board and label them Cause, Course, Consequences.
Step 2: Working in pairs, students complete comprehension questions 1-8 based on the maps.
Step 3: When the allocated time has passed, each pair should compare their answers with the pair of students in front, the teacher will move between the groups to assess understanding.
Step 4: The final question is a research and writing assignment based on the effects of the famine in their own county. Students choose one of the following tasks: Write an account of the effects of the Famine in your own county. This should include facts and statistics from Documents G-H as well as information discovered during your own research. OR Research the story of one emigrant from your own county who left Ireland during the Famine. Write three diary entries from the point of view of that person. | 0 Understood the effects of the famine on a national and local level | The students write down their first impressions of what they see. |  |  |
| 0 Developed an understanding of the substantive concept of cause and consequence |  |  |  |
| 0 Recorded and synthesized information from a selection of different sources |  |  |  |
| 0 Practised map-reading skills |  |  |  |
| 0 Presented information in a written format |  |  |  |
| 0 Practised numeracy skills |  |  |  |

Key Questions:
- o What were the main five main consequences of the famine?
- o What parts of Ireland suffered the most severe consequences of the Famine?
Lesson 5: Reviewing the Famine

Summary: During this lesson, students will engage in two activity-based learning tasks to review and reinforce what they have learned about the Famine in previous lessons. The requirement to complete an informative poster demands that students practice summarising and writing concisely.

Learning Outcomes
By the end of this lesson students should have...

- Gained an understanding of the key concepts associated with the Great Irish Famine.
- Summarised the primary causes, the course and the main consequences of the Famine in Ireland.
- Developed an ability to apply the procedural concept of chronology and the substantive concept of 'cause and consequence'.
- Presented information in graphic format.
- Employed numeracy and literacy skills.
- Worked effectively as part of a group.

Part 1: Overview/starter
Begin by explaining that the targets for this lesson are to be able to identify and explain some of the key words and concepts associated with the Famine.

Explain the rules of Key Word Bingo, before nominating pairs of students to work together to match the definitions to the key words listed in the student worksheet.

Part 3: Student Led Learning

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Step 1</th>
<th>Working in pairs, students cut out the boxes in the student worksheet and match the key terms to the correct definitions.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Step 2</td>
<td>Once they are satisfied with the matches, each pair should compare their choices with another pair of students.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Step 3</td>
<td>Remaining in these groups of four, students choose any twelve of the key words and place them randomly into the boxes of the Bingo Grid in the student worksheet. In the meantime, the teacher will nominate one student to act as the Bingo Caller.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Step 4</td>
<td>Once every group is ready, the Bingo Caller will choose definitions at random and read them to the class. If a group thinks that the definition matches any of the words on their grid, they will use a coloured pen to mark the box.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Step 5</td>
<td>The winner is determined when one group of players complete the winning bingo pattern. The pattern can be:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A)</td>
<td>A line of 3 words covered [vertical, horizontal or diagonal]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B)</td>
<td>A full house [when all the words in the grid are covered]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C)</td>
<td>Word Map: All the words beneath the symbol of the map are covered</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Part 4: Review/Plenary:
To conclude, direct the students to the poster template on the next page of the student worksheet.

This requires students to distill their knowledge and choose succinct sentences and phrases to include in each of the three spaces for Causes, Course and Consequences of the Famine.

Completion of the graphic may be assigned as a homework task or as a group task for students to complete their study of the Famine.
