1916: THE RISING IN NUMBERS

The Easter Rising made the front page of the New York Times.

Germany sent 20,000 rifles aboard the Aud to help Irish republicans to stage a rebellion.

12,000 rebels occupied buildings in Dublin city on Easter Monday 1916.

7 signatories of the Proclamation.

The rebels faced over 20,000 British Troops many of Irish Nationality.

262 civilians were killed during the 6-day Rising.

54% of total casualties.

26 was the average age of a Combatant in the GPO during Easter Week.

American Fenians Clan na Gael donated $100,000 to the IRB and the Irish Volunteers in the year before the Rising.

57 members of Cumann na mBan in the GPO Garrison and 4 Clann na nGael Girl Scouts.

Joseph Plunkett married his fiancé, Grace Gifford, in Kilmainham Gaol.

8 Hours before his execution.

Approximately 200 buildings in Dublin were destroyed, resulting in estimated damage of £2.5 million.

90 men were sentenced to death at a series of courts martials beginning on 2 May.

16 rebel leaders were executed.

8 Days in a Row.